GEICO Honors DeWarren Langley With 2006 Achievement Award

DURHAM, N. C., July 21, 2006 – GEICO will present DeWarren Langley of Durham, N. C., the 2006 GEICO Achievement Award for his outstanding academic excellence and his valuable contributions to his community.

He will join the other GEICO honorees and recommending professors and deans at an awards breakfast on Thursday, Aug. 3 at GEICO's Virginia Beach office.

Langley is entering his senior year as a business management major at Hampton University. He is the president for the Society of the Advancement of Management, as well as a resident assistant on campus and a peer counselor.

GEICO has presented Achievement Awards to students from all over the country for their academic and extracurricular activities for over 20 years. This year GEICO will award $50,000 in Achievement Award scholarships to college sophomores or juniors based on his or her academic achievements and contributions to their campus and community.
