

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

April 25, 2011

DeWarren K. Langley awarded the 2011 H.M. Michaux Award for Public Service

Durham, NC - DeWarren K. Langley was awarded the 2011 H.M. Michaux Award for Public Service during the Law School Awards Ceremony held in the Moot Courtroom at North Carolina Central University School of Law on Wednesday, April 20, 2011.

The Award was awarded for distinguished & outstanding contribution to the community while enrolled as a student at North Carolina Central University School of Law.

When presenting the award, Wendy Scott, Associate Dean for Academic Affairs noted that "Mr. Langley has completed over 650 hours of pro bono service while a student at North Carolina Central University School of Law assisting with programs such as Street Law, Future Lawyers for Community Advancement, NCCU Mentor Program and a host of other organizations focused on preparing the next generation academically and professionally."

Most notable, Mr. Langley is the Program Director of the Charles H. Houston Pre-Law Program which provides over 60 undergraduate and graduate students with continuous support throughout the law school application process and journey to the Juris Doctor degree. The Program provides students with access to a variety of resources, activities and programs.

DeWarren also received a Certificate of Achievement in recognition of superior commitment to public service and performing more than 75 hours of pro bono work by the North Carolina Bar Association and the North Carolina Central University School of Law Pro Bono Program.

For more information, please contact DeWarren K. Langley at (919) 423-8089 or dewarrenklangle@gmail.com.

ABOUT DEWARREN K. LANGLEY

A native of Durham, North Carolina, Langley is a third year law student at North Carolina Central University School of Law with a concentration in Civil Rights and Constitutional Law. He also holds a degree in Business Management and Economics with a minor in Leadership Studies from Hampton University. With a strong commitment to helping others, DeWarren is dedicated to being a resource to his community and serving as a mentor for the younger generation. Currently, he serves as Program Director of the Charles H. Houston Pre-Law Program, Thurgood Marshall Associate with the Council on Legal Education Opportunity, President of the Black Law Students Association, Vice President of the Civil Rights & Constitutional Law Society, Chair of the Board of Directors for Partners for Youth, Chair of the Board of Directors for Standing Tall for Success, At-large Representative on the Criminal Justice Partnership Advisory Board, and Secretary of the MLK Steering Committee. He is also a member of the North Carolina Advocates for Justice, Inc., the Board of Directors for Calvary Ministries of the Westend Community, Inc., Kids Voting Durham Advisory Board, Citizens Advisory Committee, and NC Bar Association - Law Student Division.

###