

Chamber Intern Langley Promotes School/Work Partnerships

Action Newsletter – Greater Durham Chamber of Commerce

August 2002

DeWarren Langley, a rising senior at Jordan High School, has re-joined the Chamber team as a summer intern. He comes to the Chamber via the Duke-Durham Partners for Youth program and is the founder and executive director of Teenagers Politically Active, a non-profit, non-partisan, youth-led activist and education organization started in August 2000. In November TPA will assist the Chamber with the Durham County Kids Voting program.

For his efforts DeWarren has been honored with several leadership awards, including the 2001 Citizens Award from Independent Weekly and the Community Leadership and Service Award from New World Communities, Inc. After high schools DeWarren plans to attend Morehouse College and major in business administration and minor in public policy. Another future goal is to obtain a juris doctorate in corporate law from NCCU.
